

An Introduction to Playing Melody and Reading Music

Project 2

Learn how the pitch names for "Happy Birthday" are notated on the staff.

The five lines and four spaces are referred to as "the staff". Noteheads are drawn both on the lines and in the spaces. The symbol at the beginning of the staff is called the "treble clef"  and defines the name given to each line and space. "The Happy Birthday Notes" are notated on the following lines and spaces:

G	A	B	C

2nd line on the staff	2nd space on the staff	3rd line on the staff	3rd space on the staff
D	E	F	G

4th line on the staff	4th space on the staff	5th line on the staff	1st space above the staff
